

INTERNATIONAL TROPICAL TIMBER ORGANIZATION (ITTO)

ITTO FELLOWSHIP PROGRAMME (FREEZAILAH FELLOWSHIP FUND)

INFORMATION NOTE

OBJECTIVE

To develop human resources and enhance professional expertise in member countries in tropical forestry, tropical timber industries and related disciplines, with a view to promoting sustainable management of tropical forests, efficient utilization and processing of tropical timber, and better economic information on the international trade in tropical timber, aligned to the International Tropical Timber Organization's (ITTO) Strategic Action Plan (SAP) 2022-2026, climate change mitigation and adaptation, the post-2020 Global Biodiversity Framework and the Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs) 2030.

ELIGIBLE ACTIVITIES

- Participation in international/regional conferences, short term training courses, training internships at industries and research and educational institutions, study tours, and lecture/demonstration tours;
- Technical document preparation, publication and dissemination, such as manuals, monographs and short videos/documentaries;
- Small grants for post graduate studies.

ITTO gives preference to short-term activities.

AWARD

The maximum amount for a fellowship award is US $10,000. The ITTO Fellowship Award provides tuition/training/conference fees, transportation fees, daily subsistence allowance, book allowance and other allowances. For post-graduate studies, only a partial tuition fee or a small research grant can be provided. Approved Fellowship Awards are non-transferable to other programmes or institutions.

ELIGIBILITY

- Only nationals of ITTO Member countries are eligible to apply.<sup>1</sup>
- Awards are to be made to individuals not to institutions.
- Previous ITTO Fellowship awardees are not eligible to apply for an ITTO Fellowship, within two years of completion of the previous fellowship activities for which the award was made.

APPRAISAL

Applications are appraised by an ITTO Fellowship Selection Panel. The Panel comprises six members, three from producer member countries and three from consumer member countries. It is chaired by the Vice-Chairman of the ITTC.

DEADLINES

Deadline for receipt of completed applications is:

17:00 (JST), Monday 20 July 2026

- Fellowship activities should start later than 1 January 2027.<sup>2</sup>
- Results of the Selection Panel will be posted on <http://www.itto.int> around 25 November 2026.

PRIORITY AREAS

Based on the expected outcomes and cross-cutting actions identified in the ITTO Strategic Action Plan 2022 -2026, eligible activities will aim at developing human resources and professional expertise in one or more of the following areas (in no priority order):

- a. Promote good governance and enabling policy frameworks for strengthening SFM and related trade, and enhancing SFM financing and investment;
- b. Increase the contribution of tropical forests to national and local economies, including through international trade and legal and sustainable supply chains;
- c. Enhance the conservation and sustainable use of biodiversity in tropical timber producing forests;
- d. Reduce tropical deforestation and forest degradation and enhance the provision of environmental goods and services;
- e. Improve the quality and availability of information on tropical forests, forest product markets and trade; and
- f. Build and develop human resource capacity to implement SFM and increase trade in forest goods and services from sustainably managed forests.

SELECTION CRITERIA

Fellowship applications will be assessed against the following selection criteria (in no priority order):

- a. Consistency of the proposed activity with the Programme's objective and priority areas;
- b. Qualifications of the applicant to undertake the proposed Fellowship activity;
- c. The potential of the skills and knowledge acquired or advanced under the Fellowship activity to lead to wider applications and benefits nationally and internationally;
- d. Reasonableness of costs in relation to the proposed Fellowship activity.

Additional consideration will be given to:

- a. Geographic and gender balance;
- b. Balance among the ITTO priority areas;
- c. Competency in the language in which the training will be given, where applicable (e.g. courses, conferences, study tours).

The ITTO Fellowships are awarded to mainly nationals of developing countries. However, ITTO would give awards to nationals of consumer developed countries when: (a) the activities for which the awards are made are carried out in Producer Member countries and the activities tend to benefit Producer Member countries; and/or (b) there is evidence of technology transfer for activities to be carried out in developed countries.

APPLICATION AND SUBMISSION

The on-line Application is available in English, French, and Spanish (the official languages of ITTO) at www.itto.int/feature20/.
