

XIII WORLD FORESTRY CONGRESS (WFC) 2009

ITTO-CITES Side Event

Ensuring International Trade in CITES-listed Timber Species is Consistent with Their Sustainable Management and Conservation

Chair: Manoel Sobral Filho, former ITTO Executive Director

Date: Monday, 19 October 2009

Venue: Yellow Pavilion, Quebracho Room

Time: 18:30-20:30

Time	Activity	Speaker
18:30 – 18:35	Opening of side event
18:35 – 18:40	ITTO-CITES program overview	S. Johnson, ITTO
18:40 – 18:50	Africa: Overview of ITTO-CITES program implementation	J.L. Betti, Regional Coordinator
18:50 – 19:00	Non-detrimental findings for afrormosia in Cameroon	J.L. Betti
19:00 – 19:05	Asia: Overview of ITTO-CITES program implementation	S.R. Hirakuri for H.C. Thang, Regional Coordinator
19:05 – 19:15	Review of peat swamp forest silviculture system in Indonesia	H.L. Tata, Forest and Nature Conservation R & D Center, Indonesia
19:15 – 19:25	Generation of spatial distribution map of ramin (Gonystylus bancanus) using hyperspectral technology and determination of sustainable harvest	S. Ibrahim, Forest Research Institute of Malaysia
19:25 – 19:35	Latin America: Overview of ITTO-CITES program implementation	S.R. Hirakuri, Regional Coordinator
19:35 – 19:45	Peru's effort to monitor and sustainably manage mahogany and cedar	I. L. Indacochea, UNALM, Peru
19:45 – 20:00	Wrap up and discussion
20:00 – 20:30	Cocktail and snacks	