

ITTO and CITES: collaboration to sustain tropical tree species
Side event at IUFRO World Congress

Date: Thursday, 9 October 2014

Time: 7:00-9:00 pm

Room: SPCC 250A

Introductory remarks:

Emmanuel Ze Meka, Executive Director, ITTO

The ITTO-CITES Program:

Steve Johnson, ITTO

Video presentation on work under the ITTO-CITES Program

Reproductive and genetic studies towards the conservation and management of Aquilaria malaccensis in Peninsular Malaysia

Dr. Lee Chai Ting, Forest Research Institute Malaysia (FRIM)

Near-infrared spectroscopy technique (NIRS) for determining wood identity

Ms. Fernanda Piccolo Pieruzzi, Environmental Analyst, Brazilian Forest Service

Implementation of ITTO-CITES Program in Cameroon: support to sustainable management and trade of Peicopsis elata and Prunus africana

Mr. Mfou'ou Mfou'ou Bruno, Ministry of Forestry and Wildlife, Cameroon

Trade study on timber products from CITES-listed species not covered by listing annotations

Dr. David Brooks, Consultant under ITTO-CITES Program

Discussion

Cocktail reception