

The Fellowship Programme: promoting human resource development and strengthening professional expertise in forestry.

Established in 1989, the ITTO Fellowship Programme has provided funds to more than 1300 young and mid-career people from over 40 countries to develop expertise in sustainable tropical forest management and sustainable forest industries and trade.

It supports participation in international conferences, training courses and internships, publication of manuals and monographs and post-graduate studies.

Apply on-line on the ITTO website.
